TM-166630 'Recalculate Mileage' Options in Trip Envelope Processing Don't Recalculate Leg Dist Can/Leg Dist US

Fixed an issue within Trip Envelope Processing where attempting to use the 'Recalculate Mileage' option on a Trip would not recalculate the Canadian/US Leg Distance fields, as well as not recalculating the Mileage Split table.

This has been corrected - now, when the 'Recalculate Mileage' option is used, it will recalculate the five important fields:

- Leg Distance
- Leg Distance (Canada)
- Leg Distance (USA)
- Tolls
- Mileage Split Values

As a side note for those who use this feature - previously, the system (once the option was pressed) would run the job immediately (so the screen would immediately refresh with values). This is no longer the case; now, when the option is used, it will add a new mileage request into the Job table, meaning it may take a few seconds for the results to be returned to the user. They will need to refresh the screen in order to view the recalculated mileage results.

The Delivery record is mandatory for the Trip Operation Plan to succeed. As a result, in this case, a fix was made to present an error that informs the user which Freight Bill is missing the record so it can be cleaned up appropriately, rather than merely presenting the user with an unhelpful Access Violation.

The purpose of this Config is to place an upper cap on the number of Trips per Day of Week that can be created from a single Trip Template in one process.

This will assist with situations where a user accidentally keys in a large value (and therefore creates too many Trips in one go, potentially causing a deadlock situation).

The default value for this new App Config is 5, and can be adjusted as needed.
